INTRODUCTION

Language Education and Debate Society Club (LEADS) of UniKL Royal College of Medicine is the organizer of British Parliamentary Novice Debate 2019 (BPND 2019). This event is designed to discover potentials and strengthen the debate culture in universities level as well as enhance their general knowledge pertaining to current global issues. The theme of this tournament is "Youth Empowerment".

OBJECTIVES

The BPND 2019 focuses to:

- give an exposure to young debaters about British Parliamentary debate format.
- enhance the English language proficiency among potential debaters in extending arguments in a structured and organized manner.
- create a platform for students to enhance their critical thinking in expressing the arguments and opinions verbally on national, regional and world current issues.

ELIGIBILITY

- The format of BPND 2019 is British Parliamentary Style Debate. Therefore, each team should consist of two (2) members.
- The members of the team must be Semester 1 to 2 or Year 1 ONLY. Strictly NO SENIOR STUDENTS representing the debate tournament.
- Each participating team must be represented by an adjudicator. The adjudicator can be senior student, staff or lecturer of the participating institution (preferably a person with some experience in debating). No external coaches/trainers or former students of the institutions are allowed to represent the adjudicators.
